

THE 2004
CONSTITUTION
OF
URHOBOPROGRESS UNION AMERICA
(UPUA)
(As Amended in 2021)

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

We recognize our common ancestry and cultural heritage;
We understand the richness of our culture and traditional Urhobo value orientation;
We recognize the need to pass on to our children the positive aspects of Urhobo culture and values;

We recognize the impact of colonialism and other factors on our culture and values;
Urhoboland in traditional African political organization constitutes a nation of autonomous kingdoms and republics;

We are aware of the economic and political importance of Urhoboland to modern Nigeria;
It is imperative to unite Urhobo people abroad and at home for the betterment of Urhoboland;
IN THE BELIEF that Urhobo people abroad have a sacred responsibility for the development of Urhoboland,

That an umbrella organization in North America was inaugurated in 1993 in recognition of the above-stated convictions, and,

That the former name of the organization was Urhobo National Association of North America (UNANA).

NOW, THEREFORE, we the Urhobo people resident in North America do proclaim the following Constitution for ourselves. This Constitution shall be cited as the 2004 Constitution of

THE 2004 UPUA CONSTITUTION AS AMENDED IN 2021

Urhobo Progress Union America (UPUA) as amended in 2021 and supersedes the 1998 Revised Constitution.

ARTICLE I

NAME, STATUS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS

1.1 The name of the Association shall be Urhobo Progress Union America (UPUA), hereinafter referred to as “the Association.”

1.2 The Association shall be a non-profit umbrella organization of Urhobo organizations and people resident in North America.

1.3 Notwithstanding Article 1.2, the Association is not precluded from establishing for-profit subsidiary organizations which shall be registered as separate legal entities.

1.4 The Association may cooperate with other organizations at home and abroad with similar interests, or for a common cause.

1.5 The principal office of the Association (the Secretariat), shall be located wherever the Secretary of the Association is located and shall be managed by the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary.

ARTICLE 2

MISSION STATEMENT

2.1 To unite people of Urhobo descent and others who identify with Urhobo people and culture abroad and at home for the promotion of human development and Urhobo culture and ideals. The Association shall promote charitable, scientific, literary, cultural, and educational projects in North America and Nigeria.

2.2 The motto of the Association in Urhobo language shall be “Okugbe, Egba, Voyan Robaro” which translates in English as “Unity, Strength and Progress.”

ARTICLE 3

PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

The Association shall:

3.1. Be organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes.

THE 2004 UPUA CONSTITUTION AS AMENDED IN 2021

- Originally Approved and Ratified by the BOT on September 3rd, 2004.
- The 2021 Amendments were Approved and Ratified by the BOT on Friday, August 06, 2021,
- The 2021 Amendments were Re-Ratified by the BOT on Friday, September 02, 2022, during the UPUA Convention in Minnesota

3.2 Assist in providing relief to disaster areas, and assist in relief of the poor, the distressed and the underprivileged.

3.3 Participate in voluntary and charitable activities in host countries and communities.

3.4 Coordinate the activities of affiliated Urhobo organizations in North America in furtherance of community development and job creation by attracting new industries to Urhoboland.

3.5 Utilize all available media to promote research and publications regarding the Urhobo language, people, history and culture.

3.6 Assist educational institutions to accomplish the production of students and leaders that will effect transformation in their families, as well as the social, economic and civil life of their communities and the world at large.

3.7 Assist students of educational institutions by providing financial aid and scholarships to enable them to improve and develop their capabilities for the benefit of their communities and the world at large.

3.8 Identify, cultivate, and support Urhobo leaders genuinely interested in the development of Urhoboland.

3.9 Promote cooperation among Nigerian, African and other organizations in host countries.

3.10 Encourage its members to abide by the laws of host countries.

3.11 Not dedicate a substantial part of the activities of the Association to carrying on propaganda or to influencing legislation, and the Association shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) either on behalf of, (or in opposition to), any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE 4

MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the Association shall be open to all people who are Urhobo by birth or marriage, or non-Urhobo people who have adopted Urhobo ethnicity and culture, and organizations of such people. Membership shall consist of the following three categories: (i) Affiliate Organization or Chapter, (ii) General Member, and (iii) Associate Member.

4.1 AFFILIATE ORGANIZATION OR CHAPTER

For the purpose of this Constitution, the term “Affiliate Organization” and “Chapter” shall have the same meaning.

THE 2004 UPUA CONSTITUTION AS AMENDED IN 2021

- Originally Approved and Ratified by the BOT on September 3rd, 2004.
- The 2021 Amendments were Approved and Ratified by the BOT on Friday, August 06, 2021,
- The 2021 Amendments were Re-Ratified by the BOT on Friday, September 02, 2022, during the UPUA Convention in Minnesota

(a) An Affiliate Organization or Chapter may be an Urhobo organization duly registered in the host city and/or state/province in North America and admitted to the Association.

(b) A Chapter shall comprise at least ten (10) members from at least five (5) nuclear families.

(b)(i) The Association shall strive to have membership in every State in North America where possible.

(b)(ii) No two (2) Affiliate Organizations/Chapters of UPUA shall EXIST within 200 miles of a state unless otherwise approved by 2/3 majority of members of any existing Chapter(s) in the state following a written notice of intent by the intending Chapter(s).

((b)(iii) Should any intending individual(s)/Chapter(s) in a state fails to meet all the provisions stipulated in Article 4.1(b), (b)(i) and (b)(ii) above, the individual(s)/Chapter(s) shall be encouraged or required to join the nearest state chapter.

4.2 GENERAL MEMBER:

There shall be two (2) categories of General Membership:

(a) Upon the admission of a Chapter its individual members shall be recognized as General Members of the Association. The names of all General Members who are members of an Affiliate Organization or Chapter shall be filed with the Association along with each quarterly remittance of dues as provided under Finance and Fiscal Management (Article 11) of this Constitution.

(b) Any Urhobo son or daughter resident in North America who is not a General Member under Article 4.2(a) above shall qualify as a General Member provided that such Urhobo son or daughter is resident outside an area that is within two hundred (200) miles radius of an Affiliate Organization or Chapter in the state. This shall not be interpreted as chapter(s) formation.

(b)(i) The Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee shall determine that the individual(s) meets the provisions enshrined in 4.2(b).

4.3 ASSOCIATE MEMBER

An Associate Member is a non-Urhobo by birth or marriage who has voluntarily adopted Urhobo ethnicity and culture.

4.4 ADMISSION INTO MEMBERSHIP

THE 2004 UPUA CONSTITUTION AS AMENDED IN 2021

- Originally Approved and Ratified by the BOT on September 3rd, 2004.
- The 2021 Amendments were Approved and Ratified by the BOT on Friday, August 06, 2021,
- The 2021 Amendments were Re-Ratified by the BOT on Friday, September 02, 2022, during the UPUA Convention in Minnesota

(a) An intending member shall apply for admission to Association by the submission of an application to the President and the Board of Trustees Chair. In the case of a Chapter, the application shall include a copy of its Constitution or bylaws. The Board of Trustees Chair shall then notify all Board of Trustees members regarding the application.

(b) The President shall, in consultation with the Executive Committee, review the application and may invite the applicant for an oral interview.

(c) Within 60 days of the application, the President in consultation with the Executive Committee, shall recommend a successful applicant to the Board of Trustees which shall ratify the admission of the new member by a simple majority of the entire membership of the Board of Trustees or reject the recommendation by a two-third ($\frac{2}{3}$) majority of the entire membership of the Board of Trustees.

(d) Where the President recommends that an applicant be not admitted as a member or fails to make a recommendation within sixty (60) days, that applicant shall be admitted by a two-third ($\frac{2}{3}$) majority of the entire membership of the Board of Trustees.

(e) Upon admission, a Chapter shall pay to the Association a one-time registration fee to be determined by the Board of Trustees every five (5) years beginning with five hundred and twenty dollars (US $520.00) in 2021

(f) Upon admission, an Associate Member or a General Member under Article 4.2(b) shall pay a one-time registration fee to be determined by the Board of Trustees every five (5) years beginning with one hundred and ten dollars (US $110.00) in 2021.

(g) The registration fee shall be paid in full by the newly admitted member within ninety (90) days of admission to the Association failing which the admission shall lapse.

(h) An Associate Member and General Member under Article 4.2(b) shall pay his dues and assessments directly to the Association in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.

(i) The provisions of Article 4.4 of this Constitution shall not apply to a General Member who is a member of this Association under the provisions of Section 4.2(a) of this Constitution.

4.5 General Provisions Affecting Chapter Membership

(a) The rights and benefits of Chapters shall include:

(a)(i) The right to a copy of the Association's Constitution upon admission.

(a)(ii) The right to be represented by its President on the Association Board of Trustees.

- The 2021 Amendments were Re-Ratified by the BOT on Friday, September 02, 2022, during the UPUA Convention in Minnesota

(a)(iii) The right to make suggestions and propose projects or actions to the Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee.

(a)(iv) The right to vote at Board of Trustees meetings.

(a)(v) The right to participate in the Association activities.

4.6 General Provisions Affecting General and Associate Membership

(a) The rights and benefits of General Members and Associate Members shall include:

(a)(i) The right to have a copy of the Association's Constitution upon admission.

(a)(ii) The right to participate in the Association activities.

(a)(iii) The privilege to attend Board of Trustees and Executive Committee meetings provided the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee shall reserve the right to exclude nonmembers of the Board of Trustees or Executive Committee from certain sessions or meetings.

(a)(iv) Nonmembers of the Board of Trustees or Executive Committee attending Board or Executive meetings may speak at such meetings at the pleasure of the Board or Executive Committee but shall not have the right to vote on issues at such meetings.

(a)(v) Only a General Member shall have the right to be appointed, nominated, or voted to an office of the Association.

4.7 Good Standing

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 4.4, 4.5 and 4.6, a Chapter, General Member or Associate Member shall be in good standing in order to enjoy any and all the rights, benefits and privileges under this Constitution. For purposes of this Constitution a member's "good standing" means:

(a)(i) A Chapter, Associate Member, or General Member under Article 4.2(b) that is up to date in its or his financial and other obligations to the Association.

(a)(ii) A General Member under Article 4.2(a) shall be in good standing if his/her name is the list of members in good standing submitted by Chapter to the Association as of the last quarter.

4.8 Members, Officers and Employees Shall not Benefit Directly from the Earnings of the Association

Notwithstanding Articles 4.4, 4.5 and 4.6, though all the Association's members are financial contributors to the Association, no part of the net income or assets of the Association shall ever inure to the benefit of any member, employee or officer thereof or to the benefit of any private person. Nevertheless, the Association may pay appropriate compensation for goods and services received. Refer to IRS regulations for charitable organizations.

4.9 Suspension, Expulsion and Termination of Membership

(a) Upon recommendation by the Executive Committee and approval by the Board of Trustees, a member may be fined, suspended or expelled for either failing to meet its or his financial and other obligations to the Association, or if it is determined that it or he has engaged in conduct or activities that are detrimental to the interests and purposes of the Association. A Board of Trustees resolution under this provision shall be passed by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) majority vote.

(b) Any expulsion, suspension or termination must conform to the procedure set forth below.

(b)(i) A written notice must be sent by mail to the member who is the subject of prospective expulsion, suspension or termination. The written notice must be given by first-class or registered mail sent to the last address of the Chapter's President or General or Associate member in the Association's records.

(b)(ii) The written notice must give at least 15 days prior notice of the expulsion, suspension or termination and the reasons therefor; and

(b)(iii) The said Chapter or individual must be given an opportunity to be heard, orally or in writing, not less than five days before the effective date of the expulsion, suspension or termination.

(b)(iv) A Chapter, Board of Trustees Member, Executive Committee Member, General Member or Associate Member who is expelled or suspended or whose membership is terminated shall be liable for any charges incurred, services or benefits actually rendered, dues, assessments or fees incurred before the expulsion, suspension or termination or arising from contract or otherwise.

(c) All rights of membership shall cease upon resignation, expulsion, or upon a Chapter's dissolution, or upon a member's death (if a natural person).

4.10 Transfer of Membership

The Association shall strive to promote and encourage the growth of Chapters. Therefore, upon accession or merger of two or more Chapters, membership of the combined Chapters shall be transferred to the new entity under the name agreed upon by the affected Chapters. The new entity shall send written notification to the Association regarding its new name (if any), and composition, and shall not be required to pay a registration fee as provided under Article 4.4(e).

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

5.1 Composition

The Board of Trustees or BOT shall comprise the Presidents of Chapters and the President of the Association. The Secretary shall attend BOT meetings and take the minutes of the meetings but shall not participate in the discussions unless called upon to speak on a specific issue. In the absence of the Secretary, the Assistant Secretary shall fill in for the Secretary.

5.2 Powers

(a) The Supreme Authority of the Association shall be vested in the General Members and Associate Members, but shall be delegated to the Board of Trustees which shall be responsible to the entire membership of the Association

(b) The Board of Trustees shall receive and approve an annual budget from the President before ratification by a voice vote of the entire membership at the Annual Convention. However, in an election year the President-elect shall have no more than ninety (90) days after his election to present an annual budget to the Board of Trustees for approval. In such a situation, or if circumstances require the President to submit a supplemental or amended budget, the Board of Trustees may approve such budget at a duly convened meeting without the need to have a ratifying voice vote of the entire membership.

(c) The Board of Trustees shall have the power to investigate, suspend, remove from office, expel from the Association, or discipline the President pursuant to the provisions of Article 6.6 of this Constitution.

5.3 Duties and Responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the Board of Trustees shall include:

(a) To formulate policies and procedures for the Association.

(b) To inform and seek support and input from the entire membership regarding the Association's policies and projects.

(c) To appoint a Strategic Plan Committee which shall prepared a 5-Year Strategic Plan for the Association, discuss, and approve the Plan which shall be ratified by the members of the Association during the Annual General Meeting. The Plan shall form the basis for the Annual Budget prepared by the Executive and shall be reviewed and updated/elongated every two years.

(d) To appoint a Policy and Procedures Committee which shall prepare a Draft Policy and Procedures Manual for the Association, discuss, and approve the Manual which shall be ratified by the members of the Association during the Annual General Meeting. The Manual shall be reviewed at least every five (5) years or as necessary

(e) To appoint an Internal Audit Committee which shall be responsible for reviewing the accounts of the Association as necessary, or in any event, at least once every two years.

(f) To appoint external auditors to review the accounts of the Association as necessary.

(g) To appoint members of the Electoral Committee pursuant to Article 6.3(d)(v)), which shall conduct the election of the President as provided under Article 6.4 of this Constitution.

5.4 Quorum and BOT Meeting Procedures

(a) One-half (½) of the entire members of the Board of Trustees (or their designees) rounded to the nearest whole number, shall constitute a quorum at its meetings.

(b) Except as otherwise specifically provided, voting at Board of Trustees meetings shall be by a simple majority of its members or their designees present with a quorum.

(c) No member of the Executive Committee shall be a designee of a Chapter at any Board of Trustees meeting including at the election of, or removal proceedings affecting the President, or the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees.

(d) Any individual who is specifically disqualified under this Constitution from being a member of the Board of Trustees is also disqualified from being a designee of a Chapter at any Board of Trustees meeting.

5.5 Election, Tenure, Duties and Responsibilities of BOT Chairperson

(a) The Board of Trustees shall elect one of its members as Chairperson of the Board provided that it shall not be the President of the Association.

(b) The Chairperson of the Board of Trustees shall be vested with power to provide leadership and direction to the Board in carrying out its functions, duties, and responsibilities under this Constitution.

(c) The Chairperson of the Board of Trustees shall preside at Board of Trustees and Joint Board of Trustees/Executive Committee meetings in accordance with the provisions of Article 8.

(d) The Chairperson of the Board of Trustees shall be elected either at an Annual Convention meeting or at a virtual or physical meeting convened by the Board of Trustees.

(e) Notwithstanding Article 5.5(d), the election of the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees and the election of the President shall be conducted in alternate years.

- The 2021 Amendments were Re-Ratified by the BOT on Friday, September 02, 2022, during the UPUA Convention in Minnesota

(f) For the purpose of electing the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, the presence of one-half (½) of the entire members of the Board of Trustees either physically or virtually present or physically or virtually represented by their designees shall constitute a quorum. For a designation to be valid:

(f)(i) The designee must be a member from the Chapter of the designating Board of Trustees member.

(f)(ii) The designator shall provide to the presiding officer of the meeting a written authorization regarding his designee. In the absence of a written authorization, the designator shall confirm by telephone to the presiding officer that his designee is authorized to vote on his behalf.

(f)(iii) For the avoidance of doubt, at the election of the Board of Trustees Chairperson, Chapters must vote either through their Presidents, or their Presidents' representatives identified under Article 5.5(f), (f)(i) and (f)(ii) above. Chapters shall not be allowed to vote in absentia or by proxy.

(g) Nominations for the position of Chairperson of the Board of Trustees shall be open sixty (60) days before the election and shall close seven (7) days before the election. A declaration of candidacy must be by written notification by electronic mail to all the members the Board of Trustees together.

(h) Election of the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees shall be by a simple majority of the votes cast.

(i) In the event of a tie, candidates shall be given 15 minutes to canvass for votes after which there shall be a fresh vote. If there is still a tie after the second voting, there shall be a third round of voting with the President casting a vote for the first time.

(j) The outgoing Board of Trustees Chairperson shall swear in the Board of Trustees Chairperson-elect who shall take an oath or affirmation that he will faithfully execute his office and to the best of his ability preserve, protect and defend this Constitution.

(k) The Chairperson of the Board of Trustees shall hold office for two years and until the installation of his successor. The term of office is renewable for another two years upon a valid election. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person shall serve more than two (2) consecutive terms as Chairperson of the Board of Trustees.

(l) Upon his election and swearing in, the Board of Trustees Chairperson shall appoint a Deputy (or Vice) Chairperson of the Board of Trustees from among the Board of Trustees members. His appointment shall be ratified by two-third (⅔) majority vote of the entire members of the Board of Trustees present at the meeting.

(l)(i) The appointee shall be a Board of Trustees member in good standing as defined in Article 4.7 of this constitution.

(m) In the event of the Board of Trustees Chairperson ceasing to be the President of his local Chapter by reason of the expiration of his tenure as President of his local Chapter, he shall continue in office to finish out his two-year term. However, while remaining a non-Chapter President, he shall be ineligible to seek reelection as Board of Trustees Chairperson and shall be disqualified from voting at any Board of Trustees meeting.

(n) In the event that the Board of Chairperson dies, resigns, or is unable perform the duties of his office, or is removed by his local Chapter as President for reasons other than the expiration of his tenure, the Board of Trustees shall transfer the powers and position of the Board of Trustees Chairperson to the Deputy Board of Trustees Chairperson who shall finish out the term of the predecessor Board of Trustees Chairperson.

(o) Any person who has succeeded to the position of Chairperson of the Board of Trustees because of his predecessor's removal, death, resignation, or inability shall be eligible to seek election to that office. If elected, he shall not serve more than one additional full term in office.

5.6 Deputy Board of Trustees Chairperson

The Deputy Board of Trustees Chairperson shall:

- (a) Assist the Board of Trustees Chairperson in the day-to-day running of the board.
- (b) Perform all the duties of the Board of Trustees Chairperson in his absence.
- (c) Pursuant to Article 5.5(n) of this constitution, shall automatically assume the position and powers of the Board of Trustees Chairperson until the next election.
- (d) Pursuant to Article 5.5(o) of this constitution, a Deputy Board of Trustees Chairperson who has succeeded to the position of Board of Trustees Chairperson as a result of his predecessor's removal, death, resignation, or inability, and who has served more than one (1) year of the term to which his predecessor was elected, shall be eligible to seek election to that office. If elected, he shall not serve more than one additional full term in office.
- (e) Perform any other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees.

5.7 Four Years Maximum Term Limit for Every Member of the Board of Trustees

(a) No member of the Board of Trustees shall serve more than four (4) consecutive years in the Board of Trustees. If any member of the Board of Trustees has served a total of four (4) years, his position shall automatically devolve upon his Vice-President or other individual who is entitled to be his successor at the local Chapter level and such a member shall not be qualified to become a member of the Board of Trustees until four years after the expiration of his initial four (4) year term.

(b) Pursuant to Article 5.7(a), the Board of Trustees shall demand for a formal waiver application duly signed by two-third (2/3) majority members of any Chapter that wishes to retain a Board of Trustees' member beyond the four (4) consecutive years mark (Article 5.7a) stating the reason(s) for consideration by the Board of Trustees.

(c) Pursuant to articles 5.7(a) and 5.7(b) above, the Board of Trustees shall reserve the right to reject or accept any formal waiver application for another term of four (4) year for the member.

5.8 Removal of Board of Trustees Chairperson

(a) The Board of Trustees Chairperson may be removed from office upon a written petition signed by at least one-half (1/2) of the entire members of the Board of Trustees that shall state the grounds for the removal.

(b) The petition shall be heard by the Board of Trustees provided the Board of Trustees Chairperson shall be afforded an opportunity to defend himself orally or in writing.

(c) A resolution by the Board of Trustees to remove its Chairperson from office shall pass by a two-third (2/3) majority vote of the entire members of the Board of Trustees.

(d) A Board of Trustees Chairperson who has been removed from office pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall remain a full-fledged member of the Board of Trustees provided he is still his Chapter's President.

ARTICLE 6

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

6.1 Composition

The Executive Committee shall consist of the: President, Vice President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, Financial Secretary, Director of Research and Culture, Director of Membership and Welfare, Director of Development, Director of Publicity, and Speaker (Otota).

6.2 Powers

(a) The daily administration of the Association shall be delegated to the President who, with members of the Executive Committee acting at his direction, shall be accountable to the entire membership of the Association through the Board of Trustees.

(b) The President may initiate and recommend to the Board of Trustees, major and long-term policies for the Association. For the avoidance of doubt, all major expenditures, long-term projects, constitutional amendments, major structural changes (and decisions incidental to the foregoing), must be approved by the Board of Trustees before implementation by the President.

6.3 Election of President and Term of Office

(a) The election of the President and the election of the Board of Trustees Chairperson shall be conducted in alternate years.

(b) The President shall be the only elected member of the Executive Committee.

(c) The term of office of the President shall be two years provided no individual shall serve more than four (4) years be it by appointment, tenure/term extension or by election.

(d) In accordance with the provisions of Article 6.4, the Electoral Committee shall conduct the election of the President in the following manner:

(d)(i) In an election year, nominations for the position of President shall be submitted in writing to the Electoral Committee and Members of the BOT and signed by at least five (5) persons from amongst the General Members or Associate Members. At least three (3) of such nominators must be from a Chapter other than the nominee's.

(d)(ii) The Electoral Committee shall verify that nominees and nominators are in good standing with the Association pursuant to Article 4.7 of this Constitution. In discharging this responsibility, the Electoral Committee shall rely on information obtained from the Secretary and Financial Secretary.

(d)(iii) Such nominations shall be forwarded to the Electoral Committee and the BOT at least ninety (90) days before the Annual Convention where the election will take place.

(d)(iv) The Electoral Committee shall circulate the names of such nominees to all Chapters at least sixty (60) days before the convention.

(d)(v) The Board of Trustees shall appoint three (3) persons from its members and/or from the entire membership to the Electoral Committee in the month of December of the year prior to the convention at which the election of the President will take place, provided none of such persons shall be a nominee or nominator.

(d)(vi) Once the Electoral Committee is duly constituted, any interested candidate for the office of the President shall be free to start campaigning from the month of January in an election year.
